Supervisor Manktelow opened the workshop stating that its purpose was to hear from a couple of the Lyons Village Police Officers, who wished to address the Board. Mr. Manktelow stated that the intent was not to have the officers answer questions nor was the Town Board's intent to be discussing the future of the Lyons Police Department. However, he stated he would allow questions from the audience once the officers made their presentation and apologized for the lack of seating space in the Town Board room for the workshop.

Both Officers Jeff Shields and Jeremiah Dresser expressed their views for having a local police presence in Lyons. They, along with Chief Bogan stated the advantages of having such police presence. They presented the Town Board with facts and figures of crime rates in Lyons from 2009 through 2013. Members of the local PD answered questions from both the Town Board and those from the public. A copy of the police reports from all years is available at the Village Hall at 76 William Street.

After all questions had been answered, Supervisor Manktelow closed the public participation of the workshop and thanked the Police Department for their time.
